8. Dr. Hans SCHUBERT

real name Dr. Hans SCHUMACHER

Formerly CE Chief of a major ZIPPER field base, Dr. Schubert fell under suspicion for several reasons. His field base suffered most seriously from the long seige of arrests of ZIPPER agents which received widespread publicity in the eastern press during 1953. His CI handling of these cases left much to be desired. He, personally, was named in the east press along with his exact job description. The exact nature of hostile knowledge concerning him became clear in the Lili Marlen case, described below. Dr. Schubert was well known to Ludwig ALBERT, who probably provided the Soviets with the material used by them in the Lili Marlen case. The Soviets knew the most intimate details about him, and the Lili Marlen microfilm directly implied that Dr. SCHUBERT was a Soviet penetration of ZIPPER. Dr. SCHUBERT was transferred on paper to a ZIPPER headquarters staff section under the direct supervision of UTILITY. His actual duties are unspecified. He is simply too suspect to perform his previous job or any responsible new job, yet under the circumstances there are various factors causing UTILITY to be disinclined to terminate him.
